Contents

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 1, FEBRUARY 1989

2 From the Editor

Points of View

3 Allotments of the future D. Winchester
Nursery over-run by pests D. A. Richards

Articles

5 Amenity horticulture and its contribution to the quality of life P. R. Thoday & J. A. Stoneham
8 Horticulture: a challenge for life S. Fry
12 Irradiation of fruits and vegetables: applications and issues D. O'Beirne
20 The application of plastic film technology to the preservation of fresh horticultural produce G. E. Hobson & K. S. Burton
24 The risks to horticulture from novel chemicals in horticultural plastics: a case study R. C. Harwick & R. A. Cole
31 Containerized herb plants: product development and marketing through garden centre outlets C. Dumville
35 Control of plant growth by exogenous application of plant growth regulators J. D. Quinlan
39 Prospects for refrigerative atmospheric dehumidification in greenhouse production J. Weir

Book Reviews

44 Glass Houses, by May Woods & Arete Warren K. Cockshull
45 Tree Detailing, by Michael Littlewood K. Rushforth
46 Growing Herbs, by Rosemary Titterington J. Butters
46 Crop Nutrition and Fertiliser Use, by John Archer A. Scaife

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 2, JUNE 1989

50 From the Editor

Articles

51 Hospital wildlife gardens P. Hartridge
56 The contribution of parks to leisure and recreation C. Boylan
61 Dealing with the conflict between access and conservation J. Sales
66 Studies on the role of fruit and vegetables in the diet T. R. Gormley
69 Diet and health in Ireland: 1600–1900 L. A. Clarkson & E. M. Crawford
76 The 'greenhouse effect': is it best studied in greenhouses? D. W. Hand
83 The use of low-level plastics on horticultural field crops D. Antill
88 Development of modular transplants and plastic containers W. Symonds

Contents

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 1, FEBRUARY 1989

2 From the Editor

Points of View

3 Allotments of the future D. Winchester
Nursery over-run by pests D. A. Richards

Articles

5 Amenity horticulture and its contribution to the quality of life P. R. Thoday & J. A. Stoneham
8 Horticulture: a challenge for life S. Fry
12 Irradiation of fruits and vegetables: applications and issues D. O'Beirne
20 The application of plastic film technology to the preservation of fresh horticultural produce G. E. Hobson & K. S. Burton
24 The risks to horticulture from novel chemicals in horticultural plastics: a case study R. C. Harwick & R. A. Cole
31 Containerized herb plants: product development and marketing through garden centre outlets C. Dumville
35 Control of plant growth by exogenous application of plant growth regulators J. D. Quinlan
39 Prospects for refrigerative atmospheric dehumidification in greenhouse production J. Weir

Book Reviews

44 Glass Houses, by May Woods & Arete Warren K. Cockshull
45 Tree Detailing, by Michael Littlewood K. Rushforth
46 Growing Herbs, by Rosemary Titterington J. Butters
46 Crop Nutrition and Fertiliser Use, by John Archer A. Scaife

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 2, JUNE 1989

50 From the Editor

Articles

51 Hospital wildlife gardens P. Hartridge
56 The contribution of parks to leisure and recreation C. Boylan
61 Dealing with the conflict between access and conservation J. Sales
66 Studies on the role of fruit and vegetables in the diet T. R. Gormley
69 Diet and health in Ireland: 1600–1900 L. A. Clarkson & E. M. Crawford
76 The 'greenhouse effect': is it best studied in greenhouses? D. W. Hand
83 The use of low-level plastics on horticultural field crops D. Antill
88 Development of modular transplants and plastic containers W. Symonds

VOLUME CONTENTS

Book Reviews

91 Encyclopedia of Rhododendron Hybrids, by Peter A. Cox & Kenneth N. E. Cox P. McMillan Browse
91 The Complete Book of British Berries, by David Lang K. Rushforth
92 An Introduction to the Cultivated Angraecoid Orchids of Madagascar, by Fred E. Hillerman & Arthur W. Holst J. Stewart
94 Glossary of Plant Tissue Culture, by Danielle J. Donnelly & William E. Vidaver A. R. Rees
95 Hebes & Parahebes, by Douglas Chalk P. McMillan Browse

VOLUME 3, NUMBER 3, OCTOBER 1989

98 From the Editor

Articles

99 Whither pesticides? R. Taylor
102 Are you competent to apply pesticides? P. C. Sheppy
106 Experimental horticulture F. W. Shepherd
111 The outlook for field vegetables N. T. Weatheritt
117 Improving the quality of horticultural seeds D. Gray
124 The National Council for the Conservation of Plants and Gardens G. A. Pattison
128 Habits of form: confusion and anomalies in the classification of plants for the designer M. Spray
135 Wild flower seedlings M. Harvey

Book Reviews

139 Fungi in Biological Controls, edited by M. N. Burge J. M. Lynch
140 Index Hortensis – Volume 1: Perennials, by P. Trehane K. Cockshull
141 The Grafters Handbook, by R. J. Garner B. Self
142 French–English Horticultural Dictionary, by D. O'D. Bourke A. R. Rees
142 The Hillier Book of Garden Planning and Planting, by K. Rushforth, R. Griffin & D. Woodland R. Pearson